

My Hope Poem

Written 6L

My hope is formed by – the candle light that still flickers in the deafening darkness,
the beats of steady hearts
like the tune of a drum,
Inspirational lives in the past
Shaping my dreams about love and peace
Rockets of endless love
Orbiting the universe and the stars above

I found it –
Embedded in a beating love's soul,
Twinkling in the depths of a nightmare forest,
Stolen by a curious cupid,
Deep in the beckoning abyss
Of my frightening dreams,
Unnoticed in the past;
Full of memories that will last

My hope can –
Light the extinguished flames,
Ignite fiery passions,
Scare the formidable demons,
Bring life to the lifeless Turn fears into conquering achievements and sort the pieces of a muddled puzzle Swallow the gloomiest shadows that only evil can bring,
Give empty souls emotions and vanquish sorrow within.

If I lost my hope –
I would create a second sea with my salty tears, and all of my dreams would disappear.
